Brian,

We can add your items to Monday's meet and confer agenda.

Bright Response is amenable to a 2 week extension for the Google interrogatory responses.

Because of the upcoming discovery deadlines, nXn cannot agree to an extension of the current interrogatory due date.

Debera: Since there is a meet and confer conference call already set up for Monday at 11 AM central time, we can discuss the discovery issues raised in your letter and my Oct 26 letter at that time. Also, I am generally available today (except 2-3 central) if you want to call me without setting up a formal time for all counsel to be present.

In addition, can you or someone on your team respond to my request for an extension of time for Google's interrogatory responses that are due on Monday, November 2? We requested one week for the PA Advisors/nXn answers and two weeks for the Bright Response answers. Thank you.
